

Residential and Commuter Life Policies

These policies compliment the Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities and the Residential and Commuter Life Contractual Terms and Conditions by clarifying and expanding on important information regarding living on campus. Understanding and complying with these documents is the expectation and responsibility of all students living in university housing. These policies are designed for any student who resides on campus and any of their guests. Violations of these policies or policies contained in the aforementioned documents may result in disciplinary actions including sanctions, fines, contract cancellation, or removal from the university.

1. ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES: See the Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities, Appendix A for all alcoholic beverages policies.
2. COMMUNITY LIVING
 - a. Students are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that is conducive to community living. This includes demonstrating respect for people of all genders, races, religious preferences, sexual orientation, and ethnic groups. Any act or threat that submits a member of the University community to physical, mental, or emotional pain is prohibited.
 - b. Furniture in lobbies and common areas must remain in those areas and are not to be taken to student rooms.
 - c. Personal items are prohibited from being left in common areas. This pertains, but is not limited to blankets, pillows, clothes, or garbage of any kind.
3. DAMAGES
 - a. The student shall use the premises and personal property and furnishings of the University in a careful and proper manner. Students are responsible for the condition of their room and its contents as well as common areas. Students will be charged for individual or group damage that occurs. When deliberate or accidental damage is not assigned to an individual or group, all residents of that living space (unit, wing, floor, etc.) will share equal responsibility for the repair costs, and damage charges will be assessed to those student(s).
 - b. Throwing or dropping any items out of windows or from stairs is prohibited. Throwing items at windows or campus property is also prohibited.
 - c. Students are responsible for their own belongings when on campus. The university is not responsible for damages to or the theft of students' personal property. Exceptions may be made for acts of God such as fire, flood, tornado, etc. or when university equipment is to blame.
4. DRUGS AND ILLEGAL SUBSTANCES: See the Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities, Appendix B for all drugs and illegal substances policies.
5. ELECTRICAL FIXTURES
 - a. Students may not remove or alter electrical fixtures or hardware.
 - b. The use of double and multi-socket extension cords are all strictly prohibited. Power strips that are UL (Underwriters Laboratories) approved and have a circuit breaker button in addition to an on/off switch may be used.

6. FAILURE TO COMPLY

- a. All residents are required to comply with the directions of Residential and Commuter Life Staff members acting in accordance with performing their duties.
- b. All residents are required to comply with meeting requests from any member of the Residential and Commuter Life Staff.
- c. Failure to comply may result in disciplinary actions including sanctions, fines, contract cancellation, or removal from the University.

7. KEYS

- a. Each student is issued the appropriate keys when they check-in. Keys are the responsibility of the student and are not to be given to others for use. A student is required to return all keys issued to them. A charge may be assessed for any key needing to be replaced.
- b. When a lost key necessitates changing one or more room locks, the student may be responsible for the cost of the lock and key replacement.
- c. It is a violation of state law and University policy to duplicate keys to any lock on University property.

8. PAINTING

- a. Students are not permitted to paint their rooms. Hall murals are also not permitted.
- b. Students in houses or apartments may not paint any part of their residence; room, living space, kitchen, etc.

9. LIVING SPACE MODIFICATION

- a. Students may not make any modifications to their living spaces unless approved by the Residential and Commuter life. This includes but is not limited to:
 - i. Painting
 - ii. Television wall fixtures
 - iii. Permanent yard work
 - iv. Carpeting
 - v. Hanging permanent shelving

10. PETS

- a. The only pets allowed in Campus Housing are fish in tanks that are 1 gallon or less. In the event that you come across an animal on campus, it should be reported to your Area Coordinator and/or Campus Safety.

11. PHYSICAL VIOLENCE OR HARASSMENT

- a. Harassment of or violence toward any individual or group is prohibited. Please refer to additional information located in the Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities Appendix D.

12. PROHIBITED ITEMS

- a. The following personal items are prohibited in the Residence Halls
 - i. Air Conditioning Units
 - ii. Appliances with exposed heating element including hot plates, candle warmers, toasters and toaster ovens, space heaters, George Foreman's, etc.
 - iii. Candles/incense/oil lamps (lit or with burnt wick).
 - iv. Extension Cords.
 - v. Lava lamps.
 - vi. Electric scooters.

- vii. Halogen lamps unless they are equipped with a protective screen.
- viii. Hazardous Materials - Materials which are hazardous to the health and safety of residents are not permitted in Residence Halls. These include, but are not limited to, chemicals, gasoline, kerosene, tiki torch oil, propane tanks, as well as containers which have been used for storing these substances.
- ix. Explosives, including, but not limited to fireworks.
- x. Knives with blades longer than three inches. The only exception are kitchen knives. However, any kitchen knife being used for purposes other than cooking may be confiscated.

13. NOISE

- a. Quiet hours are in effect every evening from 10:00 p.m. to 9:00 a.m. during the week and 12:00 a.m. midnight – 9:00 a.m. on the weekends in each hall. At other times, students are expected to exercise good judgment and consideration of other students regarding noise level.
- b. Noise is defined as sound particularly sustained and readily audible in the private living spaces of other residents.
- c. Devices designed to amplify sound to extreme levels (amplifiers, subwoofers, etc.) are prohibited in the Residence Halls.
- d. Each hall has 24 hour courtesy hours. That is, any loud noise or distraction may not be compatible with a proper hall environment. Residents may always request that another student lower an inappropriate noise level.
- e. 24 hour quiet hours shall be in effect during reading days and throughout all of finals week each semester.
- f. Students in neighborhood houses, while not under traditional quiet hours, need to be respectful of non-university residents and university residents around them. Students in neighborhood houses can still be sanctioned for disturbing the peace via noise.

14. RESTROOM FACILITIES

- a. All restroom facilities are designated by gender. Designated restrooms or shower facilities are not to be used by members of the opposite gender.
- b. Campus Operations cleaning staff will need to close restrooms periodically to perform cleaning duties. At this time, students may not use the facilities.

15. ROOM AND/OR ROOMMATE CHANGES

- a. Students must work with their hall staff if a room or roommate change is desired. Room changes will be made only if no other reasonable alternatives are available. Final approval for all changes is given by the Director of Residential and Commuter Life. Students who move without going through proper channels will be fined and must return to their original room immediately.

16. ROOM FURNISHING AND DECORATIONS

- a. Appliances – students are allowed to bring refrigerators and microwaves within the specified sizes contained in the “What to Bring” brochure available online.
- b. Room Decorations – Students are not permitted to put any holes in Residence Hall room surfaces, including walls, door, and furniture. This includes the use of nail, pins, thumbtacks, etc. If a student uses any adhesive material, they are expected to remove any residue completely prior to checking out. Please be aware that products may damage painted or wood surfaces and the responsible student will be charged for any such damage that occurs.

- i. Christmas Lights – Christmas lights may be used for decorative purposes in student rooms. Lights are limited to the indoor style and are to be kept to a minimum. Please exercise caution and care by not using extension cords and turning off lights when you depart your room.
 - ii. Christmas Trees – Students may decorate with artificial trees only. Real trees are not permitted. Trees are not permitted in common areas or hallways.
- c. Room Furnishings – Most rooms are double occupancy and contain two (2) sets of furniture. Both sets must be kept in the Residence Hall rooms. All other items must be provided by the student. Misappropriated or stolen items of any kind (including hall and lounge furniture) found in student rooms subject the student to disciplinary action by the University and/or civil authorities.

17. ROOM INSPECTIONS

- a. Inspection – During the year, periodic health, safety, and maintenance inspections will be made. In addition, a designated University official may conduct a search of the University premises if there is reason to believe University policies are being violated, premises are being used for illegal purposes, for a purpose which interferes with the normal operation of the University, or for health and safety regulations. It is expected that residents will comply with hall staff and other University officials when a search is necessary. Whenever possible, room inspections and searches will be conducted in the presence of the resident(s). Sufficient notice will be attempted to be provided by the MU staff member to the resident, however some cases do not allow for such notices.

18. SAFETY AND SECURITY

- a. Fire Equipment – Tampering with fire safety equipment is a federal offense that may result in criminal charges, fines, and disciplinary action. All students are expected to evacuate university housing during a fire alarm or drill. Failure to do may result in university sanctions. Please see the Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities, Section 4.19 for further details.
- b. Smoke Detectors – Tampering with the smoke detectors in residential rooms or common areas is prohibited. This includes removal of the detector or battery.
- c. Hall Security – In order to provide for your own safety and protection, hall exit doors will remain locked 24/7 with the exception of Clare Hall. The outside doors to Clare Hall are locked at 10:00 p.m. each evening and remain locked until approximately 6:00 a.m. It is expected that students do not permit access to living areas to non-residents without an escort. Students should expect other students living in the building to use their own student I.D. card to enter the building.
- d. Door Propping – The propping of any residence hall door that is not the door to your private room is prohibited.
- e. Unauthorized Areas – Students are prohibited from accessing any unauthorized area of the Residence Hall, including but not limited to, the roof, any Campus Operations area, garages of university owned houses, and storage areas.
- f. Students are urged to report any suspicious activity to Campus Safety by calling 317-955-6789.

19. Tobacco Policy: See the Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities, Appendix F for the tobacco free campus policy.

20. SPORTS

- a. Engaging in any sport activity is not allowed in the residence halls without prior sanction by Residential and Commuter Life staff. This is for the safety and security of all students.
- b. Biking, roller blading, skating, the use of scooters or skateboards is prohibited inside any of the University buildings. These items may be stored in resident rooms, but must be carried and not rolled into the building. The use of these items is also prohibited on the grounds of Marian University except for the roadway surfaces.

21. SOLICITATION

- a. No door-to-door solicitation or canvassing is permitted in the Residence Halls. Recognized student organizations may request permission from the Area Coordinator to host a table in the common spaces of the Residence Hall.
- b. Students may not operate any commercial enterprise from their residential rooms or any other space within the residence halls. This includes hosting parties for commercial purposes.

22. TRASH REMOVAL

- a. Students are responsible for the proper disposal of their own trash. Trash dumpsters are located outside of the halls and it is the student's responsibility to take their room trash to the dumpster or designated trash room. Individual students or floors will be charged for trash left in hallways and common areas.
- b. Students in university owned housing will dispose of trash through the city. Each house comes with a city garbage can. Garbage pick-up is on Friday mornings. Houses that are continually allowing trash to pile up and disturb the community may be sanctioned.

23. VISITATION AND OVERNIGHT GUEST POLICY

- a. Periodic overnight visitation in student rooms is limited to guests of the same gender. Guests cannot stay more than three consecutive nights. For houses and apartment residents, the limit is five nights. Residents are permitted to have guests of the opposite gender in rooms overnight provided they are under the age of 10.
 - i. Residents are allowed to have opposite gender guests in their rooms during these specified hours.
 1. Sunday – Thursday 9:00 a.m. – 12:00 a.m. (midnight)
 2. Friday & Saturday 9:00 a.m. – 2:00 a.m.
 - ii. For weekdays when there are no classes the following day, visitation hours will be until 2:00 a.m.
 - iii. All residence hall lobbies are open 24 hours a day for guests.
- b. Guests are only allowed with roommate's permission. Consideration for the other roommate should be exercised with great care.
- c. A host will be responsible for all actions of their guests. Guests are expected to adhere to all Marian University and Residential Life Policies.
- d. All students are expected to escort any guest into, throughout, and out of the residence hall. This is for the safety of all residents.

24. WEAPONS, FIREARMS, AND DANGEROUS ARTICLES AND SUBSTANCES: See the Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities for the weapons policy.
